SHOWS, PERFORMANCES, PROJECTS, etc.

- 2010- In the Random prints project I leave around different places signed and numbered prints for random people to find. If they like, the person who finds the envelope with print can share the destiny of the print. So far I have realized the project for five times: 2010 (Florence and Tuscany), 2011 (Germany, Switzerland and Sweden); 2012 (Florence and Tuscany); 2013 (Berlin); 2014 (Florence). The shared stories and the new locations of the prints can be found at: randomprints.blogspot.com
- 2009 Animated movement workshop planning and executing together with Matti Niinimäki. Live Herring produced the workshop as a part of Time for Dance festival 2009 in Jyväskylä, Finland.

- 2007 Lepidophobia performance (choreography + dance: Noora Nenonen; flash animation + screening: Päivi Hintsanen; sound: Mikko Hietaharju). Premiere November 15, 2007 in Jyväskylä, Finland.
- 2000- Coloria website is the largest colour themed site in the world – only in Finnish.
The main site: www.coloria.net
The Blog: coloria.blogspot.com
The colour text archive (also some English texts): www.coloriasto.net
- 1997-2014 The Online Gallery Spirited Herring was the first digital art collection online gallery in Finland (and amongst the first ones in the world). At the beginning of 2000 it continued as one project of the Art Council of Central Finland, and from 2008 on it was maintained by Live Herring work group. In spring 2014 I closed the gallery because of the insufficient resources. During almost twenty years it managed to compile an extensive collection of web art.
